ROBERSON - WEBSTER FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

This family Bible record was kindly donated and transcribed by Marcia McCrary, president of the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, April 2003. This Bible belonged to her maternal grandmother. It is very ornate and Marcia's mother and aunt continued to record events in it up to the l970s. It even contains a mystery: in the photo section is a baby picture of a girl that she can't connect to the family, June C. Wilson (the photo is not included in this copy).

Saline Observer, Feb. 10, 1938. p. 5.

Mrs. Waldo Gross and little son have arrived from Chicago for a two week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hertler and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gross.

Mrs. William S. Harwood and daughters, Helen, Elizabeth and Maureen, were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Edwin Staeb, at the Eastern Star reception in Ypsilanti on Monday evening.

TRAGEDY TIMES THREE: THE STORY OF ANGUS MCDONELL AND HIS SON ALBERT

Research by Karen L. Jenter, Manchester, Michigan

Angus McDonell is my maternal great great grandfather. I knew nothing about him, or that he even existed, until I began researching my mother's family in November 2005. My brother Jim and I were raised in Manchester, Washtenaw County, Michigan, home of my dad's German side of the family. My mom was born and raised in Alpena, Alpena County, Michigan, but left there shortly after graduating from high school in 1943. She moved to Ann Arbor and was employed with Michigan Bell Telephone. She married my dad in 1947. My parents took my brother and me to Alpena every summer to visit my grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins, but it was not like growing up with my dad's family. We lived practically within shouting distance of grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. We attended the same church. I counted my cousins in Manchester among my best friends.

From research I had already done, and things my mom remembers, I knew a few things about Albert, the son of Angus. He was born in Canada and married twice. He married Josephia Gibson in Harrisville, Alcona County, Michigan, on 11 November 1879. They had two daughters, Delia Sophia born in 1880, and Maude born about 1886. Albert and Josephia divorced 2 February 1889. Albert took Maude with him; Josephia took Delia Sophia and disappeared. I have found no trace of them after the divorce.

Albert married Ella Sarah Stafford in Harrisville, 30 March 1890. They had five children, including my grandmother, Lois, born at Black River, Alcona County. My mom remembers some of Lois' siblings. She told me about summers as a teenager at Van Etten Lake with Aunt Lucy and Uncle Jim, but did not know how Aunt Lucy and Uncle Jim fit in the family. I vaguely remembered a story one summer when I was young visiting in Alpena. It was about the tragic death of a relative, but I could not remember the details. I had some memories and a mystery to solve, so it was time to find my McDonell family.

The first thing I did was request my grandmother's birth certificate from Alcona County. It told me what I knew, that Lois, born in 1894, was the daughter of Albert and Ella McDonell. My one disappointment was that it listed Ella's name as McDonell, without her maiden name. That mystery was solved when I found our Revolutionary War patriot. Five children were born to Albert and Ella. By 1900 Albert and Ella lived in Alabaster, Iosco County, Michigan, with Walter, 9; my Lois, 5; and Henry, 1. By 1910 they were in Alpena with two more children, Eleanor, 5, and Alberta, 2. The 1910 census listed the family surname as McDonald, instead of McDonell. The 1920 census mistakenly listed Albert as married; no wife was living with him, only his daughters, Eleanor and Alberta. Ella must have died between 1910 and 1920.

About the time I wrote for Lois's birth certificate, I discovered Cousin Jan in Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Our great grandmothers were sisters, daughters of Samuel Stafford and Ellen Mariah Cady. Samuel, a Civil War veteran, had died suddenly in 1879 at age 39, leaving Ellen with five small children and pregnant with another. Three months after Samuel's death, their son John died at 15 months. Eight months after Samuel's death, Ellen delivered David. The loss of Samuel and John is what I consider the family's first tragedy. Their oldest child, Ella, later wife of Albert McDonell, was my great grandmother.

Ellen Cady Stafford married two more times. Her second marriage was to Joseph S. Withey. Their daughter, Lucille Ann Deborah, was born in 1882. Charles Ray Withey was born in 1893, but died within six months. Now I knew Aunt Lucy was Ellen's daughter and half sister of my great grandmother Ella. Another mystery was solved.

Cousin Jan and I talked by telephone often, and chatted online. We shared genealogy sites and information we had found. She was as obsessed with genealogy as I was. She told me she had corresponded by letter with my Uncle Howard Olson, my mom's older brother, for years before his death in 1995. Howard had sent her a lot of information, including copies of pictures of the family. Jan had many files and was unsure where the information was that she wanted to share with me. One afternoon when my mother and I returned from errands, there was a message from Jan. She had located the material, copied it, and left it between the screen and storm doors. I hurried to retrieve a very large envelope. Jan included letters, copies of pictures, obituaries, newspaper articles and a lot of family information she had collected over the years, some from Uncle Howard. It felt like Christmas and my birthday all in one. Her information would enlighten me about many things, and tell about what I call the second family tragedy.

As I indicated above, Albert and Ella married in 1890. A year later in March, their first child, Walter, was born. My grandmother Lois followed in 1894. Both Walter and Lois were born at Black River. Henry followed in 1899, and, according to Uncle Howard's information, was born at Roe Lake. Albert and Ella left Alcona County, and by 1900 lived at Alabaster, Iosco County, Michigan. Eleanor was born in 1903 at Alabaster, and their youngest, Alberta Grace, in 1908 at East Tawas, Iosca County. By 1910, the family had moved to Alpena. The information from Cousin Jan was a treasure trove. I learned that Albert was born in Blenheim, Kent County, Ontario, Canada. A newspaper article in the envelope brought to light the details of the tragic death I remembered hearing about as a young girl.

Friday, 18 April 1913, was probably like any other day for the Albert McDonell family at 112 W. Mirre Street in Alpena. My great grandfather Albert had gone to work at the Alpena Motor Company. Walter, age 22, lived and worked in Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan. My grandmother, Lois, was 18, and worked at the J. W. Gavagan Confectionery Store in Alpena. Henry, 13, and Eleanor, 9, were in school. The youngest, Alberta, who had just turned five, played in the yard. Alberta came in for lunch and found her mother Ella, my great grandmother, on the floor by her washtub. Alberta spoke to her mother, but received no reply. She ran to the neighbor's and told Mrs. M. H. Prince, "Momma won't talk to me." Mrs. Prince hurried to find Ella dead. She notified the coroner. Albert and Lois were called home from work, and Henry and Eleanor from school. The coroner pronounced Ella dead of heart disease. Both Albert and Lois believed her to be in excellent health when they left that morning. Neighbors said Ella had talked with them earlier and they found her jovial as always. Ella's father, Samuel Stafford, died prematurely at 39 in 1879 when Ella was 8. Ella's death at 44 was the second tragedy for the family. Memories from my childhood of a tragic death were now fully revealed.

From various records, I determined that Albert emigrated from Canada to Michigan in 1870 or 1874. Two different census records show those dates. In 1900 when Albert and Ella lived in Alabaster, John and Agnes McDonell and their five children also lived there. I was able to track John and his family in the 1910 and 1920 census for Genesee County, Michigan. John was born in Canada in 1855 or 1856. Was he related to Albert? A lucky Internet search in Genesee County, found John McDonell, born 1856, died 19 April 1922, and Agnes McDonell, born 10 October 1856, died 15 August 1944, and both buried in Gracelawn Cemetery, Flint, Genesee County. I emailed a friend in Genesee County who sent an abstract of John's death record and an obituary from the Flint newspaper. The obituary said John was born in Blenheim, Ontario, in October, 1956, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McDonnell. He had two brothers, Albert in Flint, and Alexander in North Lancaster, Ontario. I knew that Albert lived in Flint in 1920 with Eleanor and Alberta, so John and Albert were brothers.

I joined the rootsweb.com message board for Kent, County, Ontario, and posted my first request, giving all the information about Albert and his older brother John, including their wives and children. Did anyone recognize John and Albert? Three days later I received an answer from Pauline whose maiden name was Pickering. She lived just outside of Blenheim, and believed she had information about my family. She had an Angus McDonell in her family tree. He was married to Mary S. Pickering, and they had three sons, John, Albert and Alexander. Mary was the daughter of Henry Mercer Pickering and his wife Sarah. I immediately answered Pauline, and for the next few weeks, emails between us flew fast and furious. Pauline sent a huge envelope of information. Henry's wife Sarah died in 1868. Henry then married Ellen Pinder, but they had no children. Henry died in 1874. Ellen died in 1909, and at the time of her death had control of an estate left by Henry. In 1909 only one of Henry and Sarah's 13 children survived. There were a number of grandchildren. Names in the will included Albert McDonell and his wife Ella. The information Pauline gave me was the story of the Pickering family and the third tragedy to hit this family.

Henry Mercer Pickering was born 23 September 1791 in England. He married Sarah S. Blyth on 23 August 1822 at Bedford, England. She was born in England 30 October 1801. Henry and Sarah had 13 children. It is believed that their first seven children, including Mary S. Pickering, the youngest, were all born in England. Shortly after Mary was born on 13 June 1833, the family sailed for Canada. Six more children were born to Henry and Sarah in Canada. He became a wealthy merchant and may have owned a number of businesses, as well as a large amount of farmland. About 1854, their daughter Mary was married to Angus McDonell, from Glengarry County, Ontario. It is believed that Albert had worked as a merchant or a farmer for Henry. Angus and Mary had three sons; John, born 10 October 1855; my Albert, born 03 April 1857; and Alexander, born 10 June 1859. The Pickering family belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church. No record has been found of the date that Mary and Angus were married. Dates of birth for Albert and his brothers have been gleaned from later records, including their death certificates.

We assume things went well for the young family until 17 September 1859 when Mary died suddenly at 26. Their son Alexander had been born three months before. Mary is buried in the Craford Cemetery, Raleigh Township, Kent County, Canada. Cousin Pauline sent a picture of her tombstone. It reads: "In Memory of Mary S, daughter of Henry and Sarah Pickering died September 17, 1859 at age 26 years, 3 months and 4 days."

Ella and her family lost her father at age 39. Her husband and children lost her at age 44. But sadness had touched Albert as a child as well, when his mother died at age 26.

Angus left Blenheim with his three sons shortly after the death of Mary. We do not know what drew him back to his McDonell family in Glengarry County. The next record we find for Angus and his family was 03 November 1859. Angus had baby Alexander baptized at St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church, Chatham, Kent County. And the following June the older boys, John and Albert, were baptized in the same church. Was this because of pressure from his family? Did Angus leave Blenheim and his in-laws because he was Catholic and they were Methodist Episcopal? We will never know. We do know this family weathered three tragedies and moved on. Several mysteries have been solved and childhood memories explained in full.

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S DEATH RECORDS, 1834 – 1874, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN (PART THREE)

Translated & transcribed by John H. Schmale and Rob Steward, 1986

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered then into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names and places. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings or meanings. Rev. Schmid's usage or meaning of the term "Gicht" (gout) is unclear because it is used for infants as well as adults. It may have been used to indicate "swelling" of some kind, but here it has been translated as "disease" or "paralysis".

Abbreviations used are yr(s). for year(s); mo. or ms. for month(s); ds. for day(s); Ev. for Evangelisch (Evangelical/Protestant) and Cem. for cemetery. Columns with no entry are indicated by three hyphens (---); and the end of each column entry is indicated with a semi colon (;).

Rev. Schmid's Death Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the deceased for that particular year; Name of Deceased; Religion; Parents; Marital Status or name of spouse.
(Right hand pages – b.) Age; Cause of Death; Date and Place of Death; Date and Place of Burial.

OBITUARY OF MRS. HANNAH H. WILLIAMS, 1876

Ann Arbor Courier, September 22, 1876. p. 3

WILLIAMS–At Lima, on Sunday, Sept. 17, 1876, MRS. HANNAH H. WILLIAMS, widow of the late Gen. Asa Williams, aged 67 years.

Mrs. Williams, formerly Hannah Bond, came from Conway, Mass., in 1827, and settled with her sister, Mrs. S. H. Matthews, in the town of Webster. She united with the Presbyterian Church in Webster soon after its organization in the winter of 1830, and has been a consistent church member since that time. She was married to Gen. A. Williams in 1830, and settled in Lima, which has been her residence ever since, except six years—from 1863 to 1869—when she resided in Ann Arbor. She leaves four children to mourn her loss—Judge William D. Williams, of the twelfth district, Marquette, Mich.; Mrs. Eliza Cravath, of Minnesota; and George R. and Wallace W. Williams, of Lima. As daughter, sister, wife, mother, friend, and neighbor, she was all that a true Christian woman could be, and leaves a memory that will not be soon forgotten. Her funeral was attended on Monday by a large concourse of friends and neighbors, Rev. Mr. Diverty officiating. COM.

JAMES FELLOWS FAMILY REUNION AT MOOREVILLE, 1892

Ann Arbor Argus, Friday, January 8, 1892. p. 3

A very pleasant and enjoyable time was had at the residence of L. E. Badley, at the Joseph Shaw homestead, the 30th ult., it being the occasion of a gathering of cousins, descendants of James Fellows, who settled in this county many years ago with his family consisting of three sons and four daughters, Leonard and James H. located in Sharon, Festus A. and Mrs. Phebe Hunt in Lodi, Mrs. Emma Gillett and Mrs. Cintha Winton in Freedom, and Mrs. Roxey Shaw near Mooreville. These have all "passed over the river." For many years this family held a reunion the 5th of January, that being the birthday of Phebe and Leonard. Those joyous times are fresh in the minds of those who survive them, and these recollections prompted their reorganization by the surviving relatives, but removals and sickness made many a "vacant chair." The following, however, answered to roll-call: R. K. Fellows and wife, of Sharon, C. M. Fellows and wife, of Ypsilanti, E. P. Harper and wife and Mrs. E. W. Wallace, of Saline, Henry Leason and wife of Manchester, Mrs. Ella Robison and daughter, of Kentucky, A. G. McIntyre and L. E. Bradley, with their families, of Mooreville. Mrs. Robison read some letters which her great-grandmother, Phebe Fellows, had written for the 5th of January gatherings of from 1852 to 1858. They were full of anxious and thoughtful solicitude for "her children, grand-children and great grand-children then present." The records show that she died at the advanced age of 94. To say that all had a splendid time at Luther's would express it but faintly, and each resolved to share in a yearly gathering hereafter.

FAMILY HISTORY CAPERS

Editor Pro Tem, Nancy H. Krohn; Committee: News Editors, Barbara Giezentaner, Marcia McCrary, Richard L. Miller; Jane Nye, Tully Lyons, Mary Lou Barry, Jan E. Tripp.

The Name Index to Family History Capers Volume32 (2008-2009) is an every-name index. Cross-references have been made for some possible variations in surname spellings. Maiden names, where known, are indexed. A married female with an unknown given name may appear as Jones, ... (...) OR Jones, Mrs. An unknown given name is indicated by ... and an unknown maiden name is recorded as (...). An illegible part of a word is recorded as ---. A name may appear more than once on a page. The Rev. Schmid Death Records in this volume presented a bit of an indexing problem. The indexer assumed that the second initial in the parent's name is the initial of the mother (wife). Thus the initial will be followed with (...). If only one initial is given it is assumed to be the father of the child.

Family History Capers is published quarterly by The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County, Michigan, and is available with membership. Memberships begin with the fiscal year on July 1.
